

'MY UZI WEIGHS A TON' OPENS WITH A BANG!

July 17, 2006 (ATLANTA) – Last Saturday, over 600 guests packed the Art on 5 Gallery to enjoy the provocative “My Uzi Weighs a Ton” exhibit. While sipping on Red Bull and 3Vodka cocktails, the standing-room-only crowd observed works by artists such as Gilbert Young, Kevin A. Williams (WAK), Maurice Evans, Dante, Dubelyoo, Fabian Williams, Cruz, Michael Thrush, Dawud Anyabwile and a host of others.

Special thanks to our sponsors: Art on 5, 3 Vodka, DUBELYOO, Creative Loafing, The 135th Street Agency, Konsole Kingz, DJ Lord, DJ Jamad, Super Human Strength, Patchwerk Recording Studios, Remedy Media, Moods Music, Denominator Graphics, Savior Sol and Visual Prophets.

“My Uzi Weighs a Ton” can be seen at Art on 5 (2001 MLK Drive, Suite 530, Atlanta 30310) until Saturday, July 22, 2006. Gallery hours are Monday through Saturday from noon to 5pm.

For more info visit: www.myuziweighsaton.com

“MY UZI WEIGHS A TON” is a politically-charged artistic look at America’s fascination with firearms. With a collection of artists whose styles vary as much as the opinions on this controversial topic, “My Uzi” will be a multimedia showcase aimed to spark conversation.

Check out “MY UZI” on Creative Loafing’s Audiofloss podcast:

http://www....audiofloss.com/shows/audiofloss_070506.mp3

“THE DEATH OF PLASTIC ART”
BY: MICHAEL THRUSH

“ME, MYSELF & WHY”
BY: GILBERT YOUNG

HERE’S WHAT WENT DOWN ON SATURDAY...

Friendly faces at "My Uzi"

Hangin' at "My Uzi Weighs a Ton."

Artist Maurice Evans in front of his twin pieces "My Itchy Trigger Finger."

Public Enemy's DJ Lord keeps the vibe high.

A guest admires Kevin A. Williams' "Watch Where You Pointin'"

That Thang.”

Dubelyoo strikes a pose.

Jabari Graham (Art Beats + Lyrics) and The Adrian Frank.

Gilbert Young and a little admirer.

A couple enjoys the exhibit while artists Maurice Evans and Dante chat.

More friendly faces at "My Uzi"

"My Uzi" draws a crowd.

Kevin poses in front of his painting.

Guests analyze Ro-Yen Chin's work of art.

Dubelyoo and friends.

Tattoo artist Mi-Yah Bailey (on right) and friend.

Plenty of pretty ladies at "My Uzi"

Saptosa Foster
The 135th Street Agency
404-909-6493: Mobile
saptosa@135stagency.com
www.135stagency.com